

The South Carolina Commission on Higher Education

Executive Director

The SC Commission on Higher Education, located in Columbia, South Carolina, is the state-level coordinating board for 33 two-year and four-year public institutions and the licensing agency for other post-secondary institutions. The Executive Director is the professional administrator for the 15-member Commission with a staff of 50+ and an annual budget of $360 million including pass-through.

Desired candidate will have the following traits:

- Possess terminal degree from accredited university
- Understand higher education policy
- Have significant progressive, executive experience
- Be abreast of trends and issues in American higher education
- Have ability to work cooperatively with Commissioners and institutions to develop and communicate a clear vision for higher education in South Carolina
- Possess demonstrated leadership ability
- Be able to manage a state agency
- Possess excellent communication skills, written and spoken
- Can interact efficiently and effectively with appropriate constituent groups
- Be committed to implementing and utilizing leading technology

More details available at http://agency.governmentjobs.com/sc/job_bulletin.cfm?JobID=503036 .

Position will be filled July 1, 2013. Salary commensurate with credentials and experience.

Send cover letter and resume to:

Beth Rogers, CHE, 1122 Lady Street, Suite 300, Columbia, SC 29201

Or via email at brogers@che.sc.gov

Or apply online at www.jobs.sc.gov

Deadline for receipt of applications: 5 PM, Monday, October 1, 2012.

The State of South Carolina is an Equal Opportunity Employer.